DID YOU KNOW THAT:

- Psalm 118 is the middle chapter of the entire Bible?
 - Psalm 117, before Psalm 118 is the shortest chapter in the Bible?
 - Psalm 119, after Psalm 118 is the longest chapter in the Bible?
 - The Bible has 594 chapters before Psalm 118 and 594 chapters after Psalm 118?
 - If you add up all the chapters except Psalm 118, you get a total of 1188 chapters.
 - 1188 or Psalm 118 verse 8 is the middle verse of the entire Bible?
 - Should the central verse not have an important message? "It is better to trust and take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in man."
- Psalm 118:8

April 28 Potluck Social Devotion: Judge, Mediator or Both?

1 Samuel 2: 22 - 25

He's both! Jesus is our mediator (2 Cor. 5:16-21) and reconciles us to Himself if we have been washed in His blood (1 Tim. 2:5) and given Him our life. He is our Judge for condemnation if we haven't accepted Him as Lord and Savior.

What is Easter About? – Part 2

Do you understand what Easter means for us? If so, you are fortunate to comprehend the miracle of this event. When I use the word miracle, I am not talking about Jesus overcoming the tomb. So, what would I consider a miracle if the Resurrection of Jesus is not the miracle? Easter is the celebration of the Resurrection. We can only genuinely celebrate if we have been born again. To be born again is the most powerful miracle of all. It demonstrates God in His most merciful expression.

Peter's first letter shows that something dramatic, something supernatural, had happened inside of him; and Peter communicates the origin of this change in the greeting of his first epistle. Peter wrote in his first letter what the Resurrection means to him in 1 Peter 1:3. Please open your Bible to 1 Peter 1:3 and read. It is the central basis of hope. He, along with other believers, has hope that can come only from the Resurrection. How does Peter or any of us have hope amid trials?

Here's a summary of the events of the Resurrection: Finding the stone rolled away, the women entered the tomb. While they were still in the tomb, the angel appeared (Mark 16:4-5). The angel who spoke reminded them of Jesus' promises, then sent them to find Peter and the disciples to report that Jesus was risen (Matt. 28:7-8; Mark 16:6-7; Luke 24:6-8). The women did as they were told (Luke 24:9 - 10). The disciples were skeptical at first (Luke 24:11), but ran to the tomb, John arriving first (John 20:4), but Peter entered the tomb first (John 20:6). They saw the linen wrappings intact but empty, proof that Jesus had risen (Luke 24:12; John 20:6 - 8). They left immediately (Luke 24:12; John 20:10). Because of this, we have hope. Because of these events, we can experience the miracle. 1 Peter 1:3 reminds us that the Resurrection is not part of the Christian faith; it is the Christian faith. Why should we not live with certainty for Jesus?

If our greatest need had been information, God would have sent us an educator.

If our greatest need had been technology, God would have sent us a scientist.

If our greatest need had been money, God would have sent us an economist.

If our greatest need had been pleasure, God would have sent us an entertainer.

But our greatest need was forgiveness, so God sent us a Savior.

Music Notes

What a wonderful time we are having during our worship services as we sing praises and actively participate in worship of our Lord and Savior. Without a doubt, we believe that we were created to worship and that we should reflect the glory of God in all aspects of our lives.

Our worship time together is critical in our walk with Christ Jesus. We should always strive to direct our hearts and voices to God worshipping him for who He truly is. We seek to worship Him for what He has done and what He continues to do in our lives.

Whether you participate in worship from your seat in the congregation or from the choir loft, I want to encourage you to continue lifting your voices in true worship here at Unaka Avenue Baptist Church.

The Celebration Choir is taking a short break from Sunday night rehearsals; however, they will continue to lead worship from the choir loft each Sunday morning. Rehearsals will resume again on the first Sunday night in August.

With the summer season comes new opportunities for you to join us as members of our music ministry team. Participating with the Celebration Choir is easy! Simply join us in the choir loft prior to our worship time every Sunday morning. Choir rehearsals are held at 7:00 pm on Sunday nights following the Sunday evening services. We would love to have you participate with us. Come join us!
